About Radicchio Rosa

Available: January – February (supplies last)

Also known as: Pink Radicchio, Pink Lettuce, Pink chicory, and La Rosa del Vento

Characteristics: Rosa radicchio is a loose-leaf head with vivid pink colors ranging from blush to light magenta. The texture is delicate and tender, similar to Castelfranco with a mild bitter flavor. Rosa is pretty and will give any salad or side dish that pop of color.

Preparation Suggestions

Always rinse your produce under cool water before using. Radicchio rosa can be prepared many ways and adds color and flavor to almost any dish. The best way to enjoy radicchio rosa is in a simple salad. You can make a radicchio-only salad, or pair with romaine lettuce.

Storage/Shelf-Life

Keep radicchio rosa refrigerated in a crisper salad bag or a tightly-sealed plastic bag. It can last a couple of weeks if stored properly. Remove old leaves if they have started to brown.
